

We like the no-call list the way it is. Don't start making exceptions or you will open the floodgates to the annoying telemarketers. They have no "right" to pester us at home when we don't want their solicitations. Keep the law the way it is!!!!